AP[®] EDITION

LIVING IN THE ENVIRONMENT G. TYLER MILLER • SCOTT E. SPOOLMAN

Living in the Environment (18th Edition)
by G. Tyler Miller & Scott E. Spoolman
Published by Cengage Learning 2015

We would like to cordially invite you to the public review of the AP Environmental Science textbook. The textbook is currently being considered for use in a new science course offering for our high schools. The session has been made available for you to come and review the recommended book and supplemental materials from College Board. We welcome public feedback or questions and hope to see you there!
